To Whom It May Concern,

I am delighted to write this letter of recommendation on behalf of Dana Levy. I have known Dana for many years both professionally and socially. I first came to know Dana when she started working at Oaktree Capital Management as an Assistant Vice President in the Fund Accounting group. At the time I was a Vice President in the Company's Investor Relations group. I learned quickly that Dana is a thoughtful, highly regarded and successful person who earned the admiration of people that were fortunate enough to work with her.

In addition to our working relationship, Dana and I have developed a friendship over the past few years. She is a warm, thoughtful and dependable person. In addition, she is intelligent, passionate, and dedicated to maintaining her success. While her career has been extremely successful, Dana has managed to maintain a sense of balance in her life through, friendships, travel and family relations.

As a renter myself, I am aware of the importance of living near people who care deeply about their surroundings and are considerate and cooperative. Dana has all these qualities and will be a wonderful neighbor, friend and asset to your building.

If I can provide any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Alona Tolentino
